Dear Chief Yarbrough,

I'm sending this email to give praise and share my gratitude for Officer Livingston. I drop my daughter off at Grisham Middle School every day, and the positive energy that Officer Livingston exudes is a great start to my day. Of course, my day is not what is important, what is important is the safety and security of these students and you can tell that her positive demeanor and attitude helps make students feel safe and also feel welcome. My daughter is an introvert and can be shy and the first time I saw her give Officer Livingston a fist bump, I was so surprised at how comfortable and at ease she felt in that simple gesture.

I'm grateful that Officer Livingston spreads her light when all of us can use it.

Many thanks,

Good evening, [Redacted]

Thank you for your email. Officer Livingston is amazing and we are super excited to have her in the Round Rock ISD Police Department family. Her positivity, commitment, and desire to be a light for others is truly inspirational. I'm so glad to hear of the positive impact she has made on both you and your daughter. Touching lives in a positive way is what she's about and the most amazing thing about it is that she's just getting started! I have no doubt that throughout the year, your daughter will see Officer Livingston as a modern day super-shero!
Hope you have a wonderful evening and please don't hesitate to reach out if I can ever be of assistance.

Respectfully,

Jeffrey Yarbrough
Chief of Police
Round Rock ISD Police Department
